"Fans of Hillerman will love this unique and quirky detective duo." —Leslie Glass, bestselling author of Judging Time A Howard Moon Deer Mystery In the deserts of New Mexico, someone has just discovered his inner child . . . and it's about to throw a deadly temper tantrum. When Howard Moon Deer's girlfriend Aria storms from his cabin in the middle of the night, he just considers it another conflict in their tempestuous relationship. But when he finds her Jeep abandoned down the road with no sign of her nearby, his instincts lead him on an investigation that uncovers the dark underbelly of a trendy southwestern town. With the help of blind ex-detective Jack Wilder, Howard follows a trail of clues leading to a men's encounter group known as the Warrior Circle. Its members are prosperous local businessmen and upstanding members of the community . . . or are they? As the pair edge closer to the truth about Aria's disappearance, one thing becomes crystal clear—someone is acting out a murderous fantasy of power and revenge—and Howard and Jack may be the next victims! "Westbrook knows how to mix satire with action." —New York Times Book Review "Westbrook possesses a masterful sense of narration." —Washington Post, Book World I'm a Stormwalker—which means I can use the power of storms to work some wild and wicked magic. I've opened a hotel in a little town in the desert, where powerful vortexes house dangerous and evil beings that I need to make sure stay put. Stormalker When I'm attacked one night on the open road, an innocent bystander is killed—cousin of the local sheriff, who's not too happy with me. I try to warn him of the continuing danger, but he's curiously oblivious—for reasons I find out later. The attack also alerts my on-again, off-again boyfriend, Mick, the man I made myself walk away from years ago. Now he's back, and I have to decide whether to give into my intense cravings for him or continue to fight alone. Firewalker My day bursts into chaos when a Changer charges into my hotel, attacking me with a message spell. I have to obey the message, whether I like it or not. But that's okay, because it's from Mick, my dragon boyfriend, guiding me to Death Valley where he's been imprisoned by the Dragon Council. Rescuing him takes all my strength, not to mention the wild magics I inherited from my evil-goddess mom, plus Nash, the sheriff who's impervious to magic. But once Mick is free, he tells me he's bound to the Dragon Council to appear at a trial for breaking dragon law. He's already been found guilty, and now they'll sentence him, and maybe, just maybe, they'll let him live. Forget that. I'll do anything in my power to keep Mick safe from the sticks-up-their-dragon-tails Council, even if it means letting forth my goddess power, and challenging the likes of Coyote, all my new friends, and even Mick himself. Shadow Walker The world falls from beneath me—literally—one winter night when I'm racing down the road on my beloved motorcycle. I tumble into a huge sinkhole, followed by the sheriff, who's doggedly chasing me. I find myself in a cavern covered with evil petroglyphs that are intent on killing me ... From that harrowing situation I go to another even more dire: A hotel inspector who seems bent on putting me out of business. Add to this, my evil little sister has surfaced to tangle with me, and now Mick, my dragon boyfriend, is acting mysterious and scary. Only the magic mirror, my interfering grandmother, and my new cook seem to know what's going on, all of them telling me that Mick has been touched by shadows. The Fazbear Frights series continues with three more unsettling, novella-length tales to keep even the bravest Five Nights at Freddy's player up at night . . . Element concentrations in samples of eight types of produce are reported for collections taken before and after ash deposition, and the importance of compositional differences is assessed. I want to be with them on Mother's and Father's Day, but I know that won't happen. #3 I was finally able to see my parents this year, and I was excited. I was finally going to learn English, and I was going to school in the United States. #4 I often sold my sister Mali horchata, ensalada, and marañón, and chan to the patients at the clinic. I was a good salesman because I had been sitting on Mom's lap as she handed customers a plastic bag with whatever drink they ordered.
